Hi Everton,

I have a lunch meeting that might run about 5-10 mins late, but I'm still coming to our meeting!

Cheers,
Angie

Also, the team has landed on August 2nd being our date to have all testing ready (User,Artist,Venue,Admin/Staff). I know you said you had some people lined up for testing, do you need anyone else? We are hoping to have everyone come together on that day so we can get live feedback.

Let me know your thoughts,
Everton

Hi Everton,

I'll see what I can do about getting everyone together. How many people would you like me to organise?

Also, can I get the url for the live site?

Cheers,
Angie

Hey,

Sorry, apparently Scott changed the address on us! Here is the new one: <http://cosc499.ok.ubc.ca/27307164/group-1-sleepovers-web-portal-cosc499-team1-sleepovers/pages/home.php>

Also as far as testing, just having at least 1 person for each user group would be great. If anything extra public users would be good. I'm sure we can also arrange a couple people to be involved as well.

Awesome, thanks!

So, ideally, you would like to have everyone available for testing on August 2nd, as one big group? Could they do it remotely?

Cheers,
Angie

Either way is good. We would like some people to be able to give immediate feedback so we might stage a few testers locally with us, but testers can be remote as well.
