Hi Angie!

Just wanted to check in with you and let you know we are just plugging away at the website. We are currently just finishing off the main functionality of the site.

Any questions or comments please let me know.

Thanks,
Everton

Hey Everton!

Awesome, thanks for the update! Honestly, I trust you guys. Let me know if you want me to go over anything. Also, when do you think you'll enter the testing phase? I want to round up a few people and give them some advance notice. Not a specific date or anything, just a ballpark.

Cheers,
Angie

Hey,

As far as user testing we were aiming for late July. If you are hoping to test sooner we could probably build a beta that doesn't have as much design implementation and is just basic functionality.

Hey Everton,

No no, end of July sounds great. I don't want you guys to do a bunch of unnecessary work, I just want to give a heads up to a few people so that they know when to expect me asking them for some testing. About how many people do you think you'll need, and of what kinds? (i.e. users, bands, etc)

Cheers,
Angie

Hey Angie,

Sorry for the late reply. As far as user groups you could do the testing yourself but the main four user groups will be Artist, Venue, Admin/staff and then just a general public user.
